THE BHOPAL GAS LEAK DISASTER (PROCESSING OF CLAIMS) ORDINANCE, 1985

No. 1 of 1985

Promulgated by the President in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance to confer certain powers on the Central Government to secure that claims arising out of, or connected with, the Bhopal gas leak disaster are dealt with speedily, effectively, equitably and to the best advantage of the claimants and for matters incidental thereto.

WHEREAS Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Bhopal Gas Leak Disaster (Processing of Claims) Ordinance, 1985.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Bhopal gas leak disaster" or "disaster" means the occurrence on the 2nd and 3rd days of December, 1984 which involved the release of highly noxious and abnormally dangerous gas from a plant in Bhopal (being a plant of the Union Carbide India Limited, a subsidiary of the Union Carbide Corporation, U.S.A.) and which resulted in loss of life and damage to property on an extensive scale.

(b) "claim" means,—

- (ii) a claim, arising out of, or connected with the disaster, for any damage to property which has been, or is likely to be, sustained;
- (iii) a claim for expenses incurred or required to be incurred for containing the disaster or mitigating or otherwise coping with the effects of the disaster;
- (iv) any other claim (including any claim by way of loss of business or employment) arising out of, or connected with, the disaster;

- (c) "claimant" means a person entitled to make a claim;
- (d) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner appointed under section 6;
- (e) "person" includes the Government;
- (f) "Scheme" means a Scheme framed under section 9.

Explanation.—For the purposes of clauses (b) and (c), where the death of a person has taken place as a result of the disaster, the claim for compensation or damages for the death of such person shall be for the benefit of the spouse, children (including a child in the womb) and other heirs of the deceased and they shall be deemed to be the claimants in respect thereof.

3. Power of central Government to represent claimants.—(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Ordinance, the Central Government shall, and shall have the exclusive right to, represent, and act in place of (whether within or outside India) every person who has made, or is entitled to make, a claim for all purposes connected with such claim in the same manner and to the same effect as such person.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), the purposes referred to therein include:—

- (a) institution of any suit or other proceeding in or before any court or other authority (whether within or outside India) or withdrawal of any such suit or other proceeding; and
- (b) entering into a compromise.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply also in relation to claims in respect of which suits or other proceedings have been instituted in or before any court or other authority (whether within or outside India) before the commencement of this Ordinance:

Provided that in the case of any such suit or other proceeding with respect to any claims pending immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance in or before any court or other authority outside India, the Central Government shall represent, and act in place of, or along with, such claimant, if such court or other authority so permits.

4. Claimant's right to be represented by a legal practitioner.—Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, in representing, and acting in place of, any person in relation to any claim, the Central Government shall have due regard to any matters which such person may require to be urged with respect to his claim and shall, if such person so desires, permit at the expense of such person, a legal practitioner of his choice to be associated in the conduct of any suit or other proceeding relating to his claim.

5. Power of Central Government.—For the purpose of discharging its functions under this Ordinance, the Central Government shall have the powers of a Civil Court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) in respect of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person from any part of India and examining him on oath;
- (b) requiring the discovery and production of any document;
- (c) receiving evidence on affidavits;
- (d) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office;
- (e) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents;
- (f) any other matter which the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

6. Commissioner and other officers and employees.—(1) For the purpose of assisting it in discharging its functions under this Ordinance, the Central Government may appoint an officer, to be known as the Commissioner for the welfare of the victims of the Bhopal gas leak disaster, and such other officers and employees to assist him as that Government may deem fit.

(2) The Commissioner shall discharge such functions as may be assigned to him by the Scheme.

(3) The Commissioner and such of the officers subordinate to him as may be authorised by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette, in this behalf may, for the discharge of their functions under the Scheme, exercise all or any of the powers which the Central Government may exercise under section 5.

(4) All officers and authorities of the Government shall act in aid of the Commissioner.

7. Power to delegate. The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, delegate, subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified in the notification, all or any of its powers under this Ordinance (excepting the powers under section 9 to frame a Scheme) to the Government of Madhya Pradesh or an officer of the Central Government not below the rank of a Joint Secretary, to that Government or an officer of the Government of Madhya Pradesh not below the rank of a Secretary to that Government.

8. Limitation.—(1) In computing, under the Limitation Act, 1963 (36 of 1963) or any other law for the time being in force, the period of limitation for the purpose of instituting a suit or other proceeding for the enforcement of a claim, any period after the date on which such claim is registered under, and in accordance with, the provisions of the Scheme shall be excluded.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to any proceedings by way of appeal.

9. Power to frame a Scheme.—(1) The Central Government shall, for carrying into effect the purposes of this Ordinance, frame a Scheme as soon as may be after the commencement of this Ordinance.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the provisos of sub-section (1), a Scheme may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the registration of the claims under the Scheme and all matters connected with such registration;
- (b) the processing of the claims for securing their enforcement and matters connected therewith;
- (c) the maintenance of records and registers in respect of the claims;
- (d) the creation of a fund for meeting expenses in connection with the administration of the Scheme and of the provisions of this Ordinance;
- (e) the amounts which the Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in that behalf, credit to the fund referred to in clause (d) and any other amounts which may be credited to such fund;
- (f) the utilisation, by way of disbursement (including apportionment) or otherwise, of any amounts received in satisfaction of the claims;
- (g) the officer (being a judicial officer of a rank not lower than that of a District Judge) who may make such disbursement or apportionment in the event of a dispute;
- (h) the maintenance and audit of accounts with respect to the amounts referred to in clauses (e) and (f);
- (i) the functions of the Commissioner and other officers and employees appointed under section 6.

10. Removal of doubts.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that—

- (a) any sums paid by the Government to a claimant otherwise than by way of disbursement of the compensation or damages received as a result of the adjudication or settlement of his claim by a court or other authority, shall be deemed to be without prejudice to the adjudication or settlement by such court or other authority of his claim to receive compensation or damages in satisfaction of his claim and shall not be taken into account by such court or other authority in determining the amount of compensation or damages to which he may be entitled in satisfaction of his claim.

- (h) in disbursing under the Scheme the amount received by way of compensation or damages in satisfaction of a claim as a result of the adjudication or settlement of the claim by a court or other authority, deduction shall be made from such amount of the sums, if any, paid to the claimant by the Government before the disbursement of such amount.

11. Overriding effect.—The provisions of this Ordinance and of any Scheme framed thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any enactment other than this Ordinance or any instrument having effect by virtue of any enactment other than this Ordinance.

12. Laying.—Every notification issued under clause (f) of section 5 and every Scheme framed under section 9 shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made or framed, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the notification or the Scheme or both Houses agree that the notification or the Scheme should not be made or framed, the notification or the Scheme shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that notification or Scheme.
